INFORMATION PROTECTION AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Illegal use of your organizations' brands, trademarks, and products has increased exponentially over the years. The sophistication and complexity of this criminal activity has also skyrocketed. This disturbing trend hurts not only a firm's profit margin, but also its brand reputation.

Counterfeit Investigations & Enforcement

Utilizing its global network of resources, G4S' cutting-edge solutions can help identify and capture counterfeiters in the world's most remote locations. We developed industry-leading techniques to identify counterfeiters, track their channels of trade, and locate the source of their goods.

G4S provides turnkey services to help you:

- Identify counterfeiters and their country of origin
- Track counterfeiters and secure the scope of their network
- Confirm authenticity and source inventory and volume via discrete purchases of products
- Interdict in the forum of civil seizures and/or criminal seizures
- Utilize computer forensics to quantify damages and identify suppliers and re-sellers

Cargo Theft Investigations & Logistics Security

As organizations continue to off-shore their manufacturing, design, research/development facilities and suppliers, supply chains continue to become more complex as they stretch further around the globe. This adds to the challenges of trying to protect a company's assets. There are many more factors involved when trying to improve supply chain management. G4S' extensive network of offices throughout North America, Europe, and Asia, we can help you navigate the various of languages, business practices, cultures, and customs that all play a role in assessing, managing and safeguarding your supply chain risks.
